

Worthington & ASSOCIATES LTD.

Worthington & Associates Ltd. offers legal education to help professional purchasers, materials managers, supply managers, and contract administrators reduce their legal risk and expand their legal knowledge. Our principal, Robert C. Worthington, LLB, is an award-winning lecturer in law, with over 26 years of experience teaching the laws of purchasing, contracting, and competitive bidding. Our clients can immediately apply the fundamental principles learned from our products to their everyday business. We think you'll agree, our products and services are worth their weight in gold!

seminars Our one and two-day in-house law courses allow you to train all your staff to help avoid legal jeopardy. Each course is designed to give you the most up-to-date law in an easy to understand way. They're fast, efficient, affordable, and—believe it or not—they're FUN! We're here to help you and your organization rise to the legal challenges inherent in purchasing, contracting, and competitive bidding. Now, more than ever, you need to stay informed about the laws that affect your day-to-day procurement and contracting affairs. Contact us today!

newsletter For busy administrators who need up-to-date information at their fingertips, we are happy to present The Fine Print—Procurement Law Review. To subscribe, call or visit our Newsletter page. The Fine Print will be a well-read addition to your corporate education library.

keynotes A dynamic speaker, an excellent presenter, and a true asset to every organization he has assisted, Robert will custom-design keynote addresses for any corporate event. Robert doesn't speak in legalese—he gives his audiences straight talk and straight answers—and he always adds a little humour to his presentations, just to keep things light. When you're planning your next corporate event, we hope you'll treat your members and guests to a lively, entertaining presentation by Robert Worthington. We know they'll want to see him again!

books No time to attend our seminars? Ask about Robert's two books on purchasing and contract law, The Purchasing Law Handbook and The Public Purchasing Law Handbook. Must-have desktop references, these indispensable guides are written and designed especially for Canadian procurement professionals in the private and public sectors.
