No Budget for Training Courses? Stretched Thin on Time and Resources?

This is the information you need to improve your purchasing and contracting and boost your company's bottom line!

These course materials are designed to bring procurement professionals the information you need to avoid costly errors in purchasing, improve your contracts and reduce your legal risk in contracting, competitive bidding and procurement. These are the same materials presented in our legal education seminars, which are priced from $350 – $995.00! Materials are approximately 100 – 200 pages; cerlox or coil bound. Don't be fooled by the publication dates – all information is still current!

*=courses for which no changes in procurement law noted since publication. Other courses may be shipped with addenda if updates are in order.
