Update on Competitive Bidding Law 2009

Canadian competitive bidding law continues to expand and evolve in interesting and potentially dangerous ways for Owners, Bidders, Prime Contractors, and Sub-Trade Bidders. These laws impact the rights, responsibilities, and remedies of all parties involved in the competitive bidding process. Only with knowledge can all parties manage the legal complexities of the procurement process safely. Update on Competitive Bidding 2009 examines the current state of competitive bidding law, details the recent (and occasionally startling) decisions of our Courts, and provides participants with the insight and awareness necessary to avoid the many pitfalls in this legally-charged area of procurement.

COURSE CONTENT

- The Current State of Competitive Bidding Law in Canada
- The Supreme Court of Canada's Most Recent Pronouncements
- Obligations of Owners (Public and Private) in Competitive Bidding
- Compliant Bidding and Waivers of Non-Compliance
- Negotiation with Bidders Prior to Award
- Using Independent Agents to Conduct Competitions
- Liability of Consultants and Project Managers in Competitive Bidding
- And more!
