

Worthington & ASSOCIATES LTD.

Worthington & Associates Ltd. offers legal education to help professional purchasers, materials managers, supply managers, contract administrators, and their legal counsel to reduce their legal risk and expand their legal knowledge. Our principal, Robert C. Worthington, LLB, is an award-winning lecturer in law, with 26+ years of experience teaching the laws of purchasing, contracting, and competitive bidding. Our clients can immediately apply the fundamental principles learned from our products to their everyday business. We think you'll agree, our products and services are worth their weight in gold. We believe that an ounce of legal training is worth a ton of litigation . . . and we're here to help!

seminars Our one and two-day in-house law courses allow you to train all your staff to help avoid legal jeopardy. Each course is custom-designed to give you the most up-to-date law in an easy to understand way, using your own company's documents and policies. They're fast, efficient, affordable, and—believe it or not—they're FUN! We also offer public seminars from time to time—please visit our Calendar page for details. We're here to help you and your organization rise to the legal challenges inherent in purchasing, contracting, and competitive bidding. Contact us today!

keynotes A dynamic speaker, an excellent presenter, and a true asset to every organization he has assisted, Robert will custom-design keynote addresses for any corporate event. Robert doesn't speak in legalese—he gives his audiences straight talk and straight answers—and he always adds a little humour to his presentations, just to keep things light. When you're planning your next corporate event, we hope you'll treat your members and guests to a lively, entertaining presentation by Robert Worthington. We know they'll want to see him again!

books No time to attend our seminars? Ask about our two books on purchasing and contract law, The Purchasing Law Handbook and The Public Purchasing Law Handbook. Must-have desktop references, these indispensable guides are written and designed especially for Canadian procurement professionals in the private and public sectors.
