Update on Public Procurement Law 2009

A Legal Education Seminar with Robert C. Worthington, LLB

This one-day legal education course is designed specifically for public purchasing professionals who need to update their knowledge on important changes to Canadian purchasing law. The course covers three critical areas of public purchasing:

- Competitive Bidding Law – examining the latest decisions of Canadian Courts on disclosure, fairness, non-compliance by Bidders and Owner waiver, and Owner exclusion of liability.
- Trade Agreement Law – covering the Agreement on Internal Trade, TILMA, and the Atlantic Procurement Agreement.
- Contract Law – examining the dangers of verbal agreements and the risks of using Consultants during the tendering process.

All topics have been chosen based upon recent Canadian case law decisions from the Supreme Court of Canada, and the Canadian Trial and Appeal Courts.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND Professional Contract Administrators, Professional Purchasers, Supply Managers, Financial and General Managers, Human Resources Personnel and anyone who uses contracts or competitive bids. These organizations have found this course helpful:

■ Airports, Airlines and Aerospace Engineering ■ Educational Institutions; Universities, Colleges, School Boards ■ Federal and Provincial Governments, Crown Corporations, Municipalities, Districts ■ Medical Care Facilities, Hospitals and Health Authorities ■ Public Utilities, Power and Telecommunications.

All participants will receive a detailed set of course materials covering the laws and leading cases in each of the topic areas.

What participants have said about our courses ■ The instructor captured my attention by working humour into the presentation. Very good seminar, it really helped my knowledge and understanding of this subject. ■ I really appreciated the class participation, the total experience of the seminar was great, and I am recommending this class to my colleagues. ■ The case studies and real examples were great. ■ As always, the quality of the class and Bob's delivery were great. Looking forward to your next seminar!
